

MAHARAJA AGRASEN VIDYALAYA

Teaching is the Noblest of all professions was well elucidated by the class XII students of MAV. The students were filled with a different kind of excitement as the day is the most anticipated one, every year. The day teacher representatives of class XII were bubbling with excitement and were equally nervous for the first lecture of their life. The day started as the one day teachers entered their respective classes. The educators were gifted with a pen having their names imprinted on it, a bookmark, a thought-scroll and a rose. The Vidyalaya Captains who represented the administrators took the responsibility to run the whole school on their shoulders and also coordinated well with the one-day teacher representatives. The most awaited part of the day was the programme conducted by Divij Mishra and Aekta Barot of Class XII .It commenced with the chanting of "Guru Bramha, Guru Vishnu....". The Vidyalaya captains representing the Executive Director, Principal, Headmistress (Primary Section), Head Mistress (K.G. Section) had organized the whole programme. The life history of Dr. Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan was presented by Riddhi Vijay of Class XII – A. The prizes were distributed for the best teachers of the day for the categories of best administrator, PGT, TGT, PRT, Allied subjects and K.G. Section. Lastly; Executive Director Madam blessed the students and made them realize that "There is an enormous difference in KNOWING a thing and making someone KNOW the thing."

HAARD MEHTA, class XII